Purchase Order Terms & Cond

At all reasonable times, Contractor shall ensure Company has the right and ability to inspect, examine and witness tests and/or the test results relating to the Goods and/or Services at any Site and carry out Site inspections. Any review, inspection, examination or witnessing of testing that Company may undertake does not relieve Contractor of its responsibilities under this Order. If, as a result of Company's review, inspection, examination, or witnessing of testing, Company is not satisfied that the Goods and/or Services will comply in all respects with this Order and Company informs Contractor in writing of Company's dissatisfaction, Contractor shall take such steps as are necessary within thirty (30) calendar days to ensure compliance with this Order. Company has the right to withhold any payment of money due to Contractor until such time as the Goods and/or Services comply with this Order. Company will not be deemed to have accepted any Goods until Company has had a reasonable time to inspect the Goods after delivery and to inspect and test the results of any Goods and/or Services provided. Payment for the Goods or the signing of delivery receipts before inspection does not constitute acceptance of the Goods by Company. Company's inspection, testing or acceptance of some or all of the Goods and/or Services does not in any way change or affect Contractor's obligations under this Order or affect Company's rights to a Claim due to Contractor's breach of warranty or failure to fulfill any of its other obligations under this Order. If Company elects to accept any Goods from Contractor which do not comply with the terms of this Order, this decision does not bind Company to accept future shipments of Goods which do not comply with the terms of this Order. Title to and risk in the Goods does not pass to Company until Company takes delivery, inspects and accepts the Goods as set forth in this Order. Contractor shall pay all applicable customs, excise, import and other duties unless otherwise agreed to by the Parties in writing. Contractor warrants that it has complete ownership of the Goods, free of any liens, charges and encumbrances and will provide the Goods to Company on that basis and that Company will be entitled to clear, complete and quiet possession of the Goods. Contractor Group shall not directly or indirectly disclose to any Third Party any Confidential Information without the prior written consent of Company, nor use any such Confidential Information for its or their benefit. Contractor shall be solely liable for ensuring that Confidential Information shall at all times remain confidential and for all Claims suffered by Company as a result of a breach by Contractor Group of this obligation. If required, Company may, in its discretion, require Contractor Group to execute written confidentiality agreements in favor of Company. The provision of Goods and/or Services under this Order may involve the creation of Intellectual Property. If this is the case, then as partial consideration for Contractor's engagement by Company, the Parties agree that all Intellectual Property created during Contractor's performance hereunder shall vest in and is the property of the Company upon it coming into existence and Contractor agrees to assist Company in every legal way to evidence, record and perfect the assignment of such Intellectual Property. The Company shall grant the Contractor a non-exclusive, non-transferable, irrevocable, royalty free license of any Intellectual Property obtained by Company under this Order, excluding the right to sub-license, for Contractor's use only. Contractor covenants to Company that any Intellectual Property created or utilized by it in relation to the Goods and/or Services will not infringe the Intellectual Property or proprietary rights of any Third Party, any member of Company Group or any member of the Contractor Group and hereby further agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Company Group harmless from and against all Claims arising or related to a breach of such covenant. Contractor shall notify the Company in writing, immediately, upon becoming aware of any actual or potential, breach or infringement of any Intellectual Property related to this Order, including any amounts claimed as damages (if any); or any injunction or other order. If the Company or Contractor is enjoined or prevented from the right to perform or utilize any portion of the Goods and/or Services for their intended purpose due to or in connection with a Claim for alleged breach of Intellectual Property for which the Contractor is responsible, the Contractor shall at its own expense take all steps necessary to procure for the Company the right to perform or utilize the affected portion of the Goods and/or Services for their intended purpose. In the event of a dispute as to all or any portion of an invoice, Company may withhold the disputed amount. In any event, however, payment of an invoice does not constitute acceptance of the correctness of the invoice, and Company may, whether or not a charge is disputed, pay the charge without waiver of Company's right to dispute the accuracy of the charge and seek reimbursement at a later time. In addition, Company may, upon request, require Contractor to furnish Company with: (i) satisfactory evidence of the validity and proper payment by Contractor of all charges incurred by Contractor thereunder, (ii) verification satisfactory to Company of Goods and/or Services provided, (iii) verification of satisfactory receipt, installment and provision of all Goods and/or Services to which such payment relates, (iv) proof that all Claims against Contractor by its suppliers and Subcontractors for labor, goods, equipment and services of any kind furnished in connection with Contractor's obligations under this Order have been fully paid and satisfied, and (v) proof that all liens, Claims and privileges of Contractor's suppliers and Subcontractors, and Claims not covered by insurance, arising out of Goods and/or Services provided in connection with Contractor's obligations under this Order have been fully released or satisfied. If Company is obliged by the law of the country of operations or instructed by its government or political sub-divisions thereof, and to the extent that such withholding is required, Company may, without liability to Contractor, withhold Taxes from payments made by Company to Contractor. In such circumstances, Company shall submit written notice to the Contractor advising Contractor of the full particulars regarding the obligation to withhold or the instructions received by Company. All withheld Taxes shall be for the account of the Contractor irrespective of where Goods and/or Services are provided and payment of Contractor's invoices will be inclusive of any Taxes or similar charges. Should the results of any audit so require, appropriate adjustments or payments shall be made by the Parties. The obligations of this Article shall survive termination of this Order.

INSURANCE - It is expressly acknowledged and agreed by the Parties that the insurance coverages required by these insurance provisions shall in no way limit, alter, decrease or eliminate the liability of either Party as assumed or stated elsewhere in this Order. Upon request of Company, Contractor shall, prior to performing any obligation hereunder, furnish Company with certificates of insurance in accordance with the coverages hereinafter prescribed, which insurance shall provide for thirty (30) days prior written notice to Company of reduction, material change, non-renewal, or cancellation of any coverage. Failure of Company to object to Contractor's failure to furnish such certificates, or to any defect in such certificates, or to the failure to secure such endorsements on the policies as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Order, shall not be deemed a waiver of Contractor's obligation to furnish the insurance coverages as prescribed herein nor relieve Contractor from any of its obligations under this Order. Except as expressly set forth herein, deductibles and self-insurance retentions, if any, shall be the sole responsibility of Contractor with respect to liabilities undertaken by Contractor hereunder. If Contractor shall fail to provide the insurance required by this Order, Company shall have the right to terminate this Order forthwith or Company may secure such insurance and charge the cost of the same to Contractor or deduct such costs from amounts otherwise payable to Contractor. In the event that liability for any loss or damage is denied by the underwriter(s) of Contractor, in whole or in part, for any reason, or if Contractor fails to maintain any of the required insurance, Contractor shall become an insurer to the extent of any such failure and shall, in addition, indemnify and hold harmless Company Group against all Claims which would otherwise be covered by said insurance. Each Party shall appoint an arbitrator within 10 business days of the delivery of the Arbitration Notice; the two arbitrators shall appoint a third within 15 business days from the date of the appointment of the last Party appointed arbitrator. If the two arbitrators are unable to do so, either Party may request the AAA to designate the third arbitrator in accordance with its then current Rules. Any arbitration hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the Rules and held in Houston, Texas, USA in the English language. The arbitrator(s) shall apply the substantive law agreed to by the Parties in the applicable law Article of this Order excluding any conflict of laws or choice of law rules, procedures or principles and shall in no case award any punitive, special, exemplary, indirect or consequential damages or losses, including loss of profits or loss of business opportunity. The decision of the arbitrator(s) (which shall be a reasoned opinion rendered in writing) shall be final, non-appealable and binding upon the Parties and may be enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction. Unless required by legal authorities with competent jurisdiction, all materials, information, testimony and evidence produced and/or introduced during the arbitration proceedings, including all rulings and decisions rendered by the arbitrator(s), shall be kept confidential by each Party and shall not be disclosed without the prior written consent of the other Party.
